

Coronet Roadrunner hones expeditionary skills

PHOTO BY AIRMAN 1ST CLASS HEATHER REDMAN
 Tech Sgt. Andrea Lee (left) and Senior Airman Michelle Graves, 27th Aeromedical Squadron, load a simulated patient into an ambulance as part of medical evacuation procedures during Operation Coronet Roadrunner this week.

PHOTO BY AIRMAN 1ST CLASS THOMAS TROWER
 The deployed medical facility was a center of activity during Operation Coronet Roadrunner. The exercise focused on readiness and training and was a final opportunity to hone expeditionary combat skills before deployment this fall.

PHOTO BY AIRMAN 1ST CLASS HEATHER REDMAN
 Airmen from the 27th Security Forces Squadron begin a night of reconnaissance training by marching out of the cantonment area during exercise Coronet Roadrunner Wednesday.

PHOTO BY AIRMAN 1ST CLASS HEATHER REDMAN
 Captain Chad Prior, 27th Medical Operations Squadron, checks the vital signs for Airman 1st Class Justin Lavari, 27th Air Medical Dental Squadron, Tuesday. Airman Lavari is one of the mock casualties during the exercise Coronet Roadrunner.