

Single Airmen spend holidays with Air Force family, friends

PHOTO BY 2ND LT. GEORGE TOBIAS

PHOTO BY 2ND LT. GEORGE TOBIAS

PHOTO BY AIRMAN ERIK CARDENAS

Lt. Col. Mark Fluker, 27th Maintenance Group, was one of many volunteers who helped set up, serve and clean up after the Single Airmen's Dinner Dec. 14 at the Cannon Chapel. Airmen from across the 27th Fighter Wing attended.

PHOTO BY 2ND LT. GEORGE TOBIAS

Top left: Chaplain (Capt.) Eusebia Rios and Tech. Sgt. James Faulkner, 27th Fighter Wing Chapel get the crowd excited during the gift drawing. Gifts were purchased by donations. Left: Airman 1st Class Alex Schatzman, 27th Logistics Readiness Squadron, was thrilled to receive a gift at the Single Airmen's Dinner Dec. 14 at the Cannon Chapel. All single dorm residents were invited to the dinner to spend time with their Air Force family, since not all of them could visit home.

PHOTO BY AIRMAN ERIK CARDENAS

Top: Over 25 Airmen went home from the Single Airmen's Dinner with a door prize. Prizes ranged from gift baskets and gift certificates to games and a high definition television. Left: Sergeant Faulkner (right) and Col. Valentino Bagnani III, 27th Fighter Wing vice commander, showed off the grand prize, a 25 inch HDTV to the crowd of anxious Airmen. Right: An Airman who attended the dinner received a gift certificate to the 27th Services Squadron Outdoor Recreation facility. ODR provides equipment and trip packages for Airmen wanting to explore New Mexico and west Texas.

PHOTO BY AIRMAN ERIK CARDENAS