UPDATE: Cannon Air Force Base deemed 'all clear'

CANNON AIR FORCE BASE, N.M. – Cannon Air Force Base Security Forces has deemed the base all clear at 9:31 p.m, Tuesday, after active shooter protocol was conducted due to reports of an individual hearing gunfire.

Cannon AFB Security Forces will continue to conduct additional security forces patrols throughout the evening focused on mission areas and housing to ensure the safety and security of our Air Commandos.

There were no reported injuries nor are there any suspects.

We would like to thank our Defenders, the City of Clovis Police Department, Curry County Sheriff Department, and New Mexico State Police for assisting us in securing the base this evening. We appreciate you.

As a reminder, if you see anything out of the ordinary, please contact Security Forces at 575-784-4111.
