Cannon AFB hosts quarterly virtual PFAS update meeting

CANNON AIR FORCE BASE, New Mexico - The 27th Special Operations Wing will host a virtual public meeting Mar 16 at 5 p.m. to provide updates to the Department of the Air Force's on-going actions to address per-and polyfluoroalkyl substances (PFAS) -- identified at Cannon Air Force Base, New Mexico.

This is the first 2022 quarterly meeting focused on the Air Force's response to PFAS. Environmental project managers from the Air Force Civil Engineer Center will provide program status updates and will answer public PFAS questions.

The Air Force welcomes and encourages public participation and involvement.

The virtual meeting is open to the public and can be accessed via Zoom at <https://bit.ly/3vHypKF>, or by dialing (646) 876-9923.

Meeting ID: 337 873 3806

Passcode: 88101

Zoom allows users to type their questions into a chat box. All questions will be captured and answered either during the meeting or in the meeting minutes. For questions regarding the Zoom software, visit: Zoom Help Center.
